

Want to Become a Unit Victim Advocate?

1.

Do you have a drive to help people and want to support your fellow service members?

2.

Do you meet the rank requirements?

- E-6 or above or promotable E-5
- O-2 or above
- CW2 or above

3.

Call or email the JFHQ Victim Advocate Coordinator to inquire about becoming an advocate for your unit

The process of becoming an advocate can take several months. It includes background checks, attending a two week Sharp course, and getting and maintaining nationally recognized advocacy credentials.