As warmer summer months approach, the Vermont National Guard wants to remind the public that Camp Ethan Allen Training Site, 113 Ethan Allen Rd. Jericho, Vt., 05465, is a closed installation and all visitors must process through the main gate security checkpoint.

This is to ensure people's safety, so they do not enter active training areas. There are numerous training areas at Camp Ethan Allen Training Site including multiple active firing ranges. Trespassing risks the safety of the trespasser and can inhibit military training from occurring.

Trespassers will be cited and local law enforcement will be worked with accordingly.
